

Deb Leone Practitioner

Deb Leone's Natural & Integrative Healing practice serves nearly 250 clients. She focuses on Chinese Medicine using methods that include energy and bodywork, emotional trauma release therapy, hands on healing, auricular acupuncture, Tarot, and Feng Shui and past life regression. She also teaches healing classes.

Deb is President & Founder of The Melonhead Foundation, created in memory of daughter, Melanie, a competitive swimmer and Olympic hopeful diagnosed with Leukemia, whose life ended March 4, 1992 at age 14. The 501(c)(3) organization gives financial aid for personal and medical needs, and provides resources for natural healing. This pediatric cancer charity has assisted over 150 families and awarded over $80,000 in support and is developing a permanent Camp Wannahealyah to teach and implement natural healing for kids with cancer and their family members.

Ms. Leone received her B.S. Child Development and Special Education degrees from the University of Idaho in 1974, and completed Master studies in Special Education at Arizona State University in 1983. She directs her foundation's volunteer board of trustees, oversees numerous fundraising events, solicits grant applications and runs the charity's everyday affairs. She is featured in her foundation's video, has spoken at numerous public events, and on local talk radio shows.
